Escape to West Sweden´s NEW Island Boutique B&B: Kläpphagen Koster

An exciting new place to stay on South Koster island opens on 15th May. Kläpphagen Koster have built up a charming destination on the island – a new Boutique B&B with 6 new apartments, each equipped with a terrace and galley kitchen, 2 glamping tents and a cosy farmhouse on two floors. On-site there is even a brewery, farm shop, bakery and restaurant as well as a bar and a private lounge area for 4. Guests can prepare food over an open fire using local ingredients, learn how to make beer and have a beer tasting, as well as go fishing and hiking.

While on the island, take a moment to explore the Kosterhavet National Park, Sweden's first marine national park, with underwater trails and a visitor center. Get there by ferry from Strömstad, which is reached by train from Gothenburg. On South Koster you can also hike and cycle. Visit the Naturum Kosterhavet to learn all about the marine national park, go on guided boat trips and hire kayaks. Starting price for two from: 1197 SEK/night; Glamping tent and 1977 SEK/night in the Superior Suit; and 2697 SEK/night in the Farmhouse. Read more about the stay here:https://www.klapphagen.se/en/stay/

- There´s a game of bowls, a brewery training course and beer tasting, fishing, board games, hiking and a hairdresser available
- In the moment: Cars are not allowed on the Koster Islands, you are totally immersed in a protected natural environment that lends itself perfectly to exploring the many hiking paths that cross the island
- Book a guided boat trip and seal safari, go kayaking or stand-up paddle boarding
- A stay can be combined with a visit to the brand new Strömstad Spa and Lagunen on the mainland (the harbour you travel to the Koster Islands from), which opened on the 31st March 2023.
