Visit Sweden News Room

10 Unforgettable Stays in Sweden: From UFOs to Ice Hotels

Ever dreamed of spending the night inside a giant moose, mushroom, or UFO? From treehouses and underwater hotels to savanna stays, Sweden offers a variety of accommodations that provide more than just a place to rest.

Here are ten must-try accommodations for your next Swedish adventure:

- Sleep Inside a Giant Moose
  At Wrågården Elk Park near Falköping (West Sweden), you can spend the night in a massive wooden lodge shaped like a moose. Designed by Sören Niklasson, these cozy lodges offer direct views of the elk enclosures for an up-close wildlife experience. Learn more.

- Stay in a Castle in the Air
  Islanna Tree Hotels, located near Lake Hornborga in West Sweden, feature treehouses built seven meters above ground, designed by a local artist. These luxurious tree hotels provide breathtaking views of the surrounding forest. Learn more.

- Mushroom or Stump House Stay
  Just outside the village of Lyrestad, two whimsical, oversized mushroom and stump houses offer a cozy and unforgettable stay, perfect for families. Nestled in a picturesque Swedish forest, these unique homes are ideal for a family getaway. Learn more.

- Glamping with Vikings
  From June to September, visitors to Björkö Island in Lake Mälaren can enjoy luxury glamping tents while exploring Viking history. These tents combine modern comfort with a glimpse into life a thousand years ago. Learn more.

- Stay in a Charcoal Burner's Hut
  Kolarbyn Eco Lodge in Västmanland offers rustic, eco-friendly stays in charcoal huts. It's the perfect spot to disconnect from the busy world and fully embrace Sweden's natural beauty.
  Learn more.

- Sleep Underwater
  Utter Inn in Västerås is an underwater hotel where the bedroom is located three meters below the water's surface. This exclusive underwater experience gives guests a one-of-a-kind view of aquatic life. Learn more.

- Nestled Among the Birds
  The Biosphere room at Treehotel in Lapland is surrounded by 340 birdhouses, offering a secluded and nature-immersed stay. Bird enthusiasts will find this unique accommodation both cozy and fascinating. Learn more.

- Sleep in a UFO
  Another standout at Treehotel is the UFO room, offering accommodation for up to five people with futuristic lighting and design. This unique space-themed retreat is perfect for stargazers and dreamers. Learn more.

- The Ice Hotel
  Sweden's famous Icehotel in Jukkasjärvi is now open year-round. Guests can stay in intricately designed ice suites, kept at a constant -7°C, providing an unforgettable experience of sleeping on ice. Learn more.

- Hobbit House Stay
  In the green suburbs of Stockholm, in Nacka, you can stay in a lovingly crafted Hobbit house. This unique accommodation offers a peaceful escape while also bringing the fantasy of Middle-earth to life. Learn more.

For more inspiration and information about unique stays in Sweden:Visit Sweden.

Visit Sweden has an official assignment from the Swedish government to market Sweden as a destination. Our vision is that Sweden by 2030 is the world's most sustainable and attractive destination built on innovation. Now more than ever, purposeful travel needs to be meaningful, conscious and creating lasting value with regard to our guests, the local community and our planet. Welcome to Sweden, a destination of a different nature.

Additional assets available online: Photos (1)

https://press.visitsweden.com/2024-10-07-10-Unforgettable-Stays-in-Sweden-From-UFOs-to-Ice-Hotels